DISCLOSURE

The owner of the life insurance policy to be viaticated, the viator, should be aware of the following:

1. That there are possible alternatives to viatical settlements, including any accelerated death benefits or loans offered under the viator's policy.
2. That some or all of the proceeds of the viatical settlement may be taxable under the federal income tax or a state franchise or income tax, and assistance should be sought from a professional tax adviser.
3. That proceeds of the viatical settlement may be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. That receipt of proceeds of a viatical settlement may adversely affect the viator's eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits, and advice should be obtained from the appropriate governmental agencies.
5. That the viator has a right to terminate a viatical settlement within fifteen (15) days after his receipt of proceeds, as provided by Nevada law, and if the insured dies during that period, the settlement is terminated and all proceeds must be repaid to the provider.
6. That money will be sent to viator within three (3) business days after the provider has received the insurer's or group administrator's acknowledgement that ownership of or interest in the policy has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated.
7. That entering into a viatical settlement may cause other rights, including conversion and waiver of premium, that may exist under the policy to be forfeited by the viator, and assistance should be sought from a financial adviser.
8. That all medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker of viatical settlements about an insured, including his identity and that of members of his family, a spouse or other relationship, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement between the viator and the provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. Failure to consent may affect your ability to viaticate your policy. The information may be furnished to someone who buys the policy or provides money for the purchase.

I have received a brochure which describes the process of viatical settlements in the form prescribed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and provided as part of the viatical settlement disclosure.
